STEPS ARE TAKEN TO COMPROMISE

A. P. Walker Reaches An Agreement With Creditors to Settle For 70 Cents on Dollar.

2 SUITS DISMISSED TODAY
Albert L. Winship Will Advance Money—Will Sell Cattle and Take Deed to Farm.

The A. P. Walker receivership is about to be closed, and under the terms of the agreement signed, the creditors will receive seventy cents on the dollar. The first steps taken in court towards the closing of the receivership occurred this morning when two suits involving Walker were dismissed and a deed for the sale of the farm of 120 acres was approved by Judge Megee.

The first suit dismissed was that of Alpheus P. Walker and Alberta M. Walker against Johanan M. Amos and A. B. Irvin, as trustees, the Rushville National bank, the Farmers Trust company, the Etna Trust and Savings company, and the National City Bank of Indianapolis. This was a quiet title suit and asked that a deed be cancelled. The case was dismissed by the plaintiffs.

The other suit dismissed was that of Johanan M. Amos and A. B. Irvin, trustees, against A. P. Walker, asking for an ejectment and demanding $500. In this suit A. P. Walker filed a written motion to dismiss the cross-complaint and when this was dismissed the plaintiffs Amos and Irvin, moved to dismiss the suit, which was done.

It is understood that the two suits pending in the Shelby circuit court against Rosa B. Pearson will also be dismissed, if they have not already been. These suits were brought by the receiver, Charles A. Frazee, to recover some cattle and stock that had been transferred to Mrs. Pearson. Under the terms of the agreement, it is understood that the cattle are transferred to Albert L. Winship, and they will be offered for sale June 2.

Judge Megee granted the petition of the receiver to be permitted to join in the deed for the conveyance of the 120 acres of land and the deed was approved by the court. The only suit remaining in court is that of Washington Tyler against Walker, in which the receiver was appointed. The receiver can not be discharged until some of the claims are heard and it is not known when this will be, but it will in no way interfere with the work of settling the estate on the basis of seventy cents on the dollar.

Under the terms of the settlement, it is stated, Walker gives Mr. Winship a bill of sale for the cattle and they are to be sold to raise a part of the funds to pay the creditors. The farm, it was reported, sold for $16,200 or $135 an acre. This $16,200 with the $12,500 that Mr. Winship is to advance together with the money received from the sale of the cattle, is expected to pay the debts at the rate of seventy cents on the dollar.

The farm of thirty acres, which is the present residence of Walker, is deeded to Mr. Winship to insure him against loss. It is believed that the sale will be successful and it is expected to be one of the best ever held here. The date has been set for June 2.

Talk of a settlement has been heard for some time and the rumors were to the effect that it would be settled on this basis. The attorneys believed this to be the most satisfactory way to settle the estate and a long legal battle is avoided.

MAD DOG BITES LITTLE GIRL

Creates Excitement Near Raleigh Today, But it is Finally Killed.

A mad dog scare a few miles southwest of Raleigh this morning created much excitement and one person was bitten by the dog before it was killed. The dog was first seen in the neighborhood of the Glen Abernathy farm. The dog attacked little Gertrude Shields, a niece of Mr. Abernathy, as she was going to the mail box. The little girl was bitten by the dog but her injuries are not serious. The dog ran through several fields at the Abernathy farm and a number of hogs were bitten. The dog was killed by Will Whitton as it approached the Ed Hood place. The head will be sent to the state laboratory in Indianapolis to see if the dog was suffering from rabies.

J. FEUDNER IS IN THICK OF THE FRAY

Rushville Man at Canon City, Colo., Where Strike War is in Process. is in Very Heart of District

MOTION PICTURE INCIDENT

J. Feudner, who recently went to Canon City, Colo., on account of his health, is in the very heart of the Colorado mine district where the strike war is now being carried on. The popping of guns, Mr. Feudner writes, is a familiar sound to his ears. He has sent a copy of the Canon Record which contains an account relating to the strike.

The Colorado Moving Picture company is making films at Canon City. Last Saturday the company opened with a volley of shots with blank cartridges while enacting a scene near Canon City. In five minutes scores of miners who were in the vicinity climbed the foothills toward the scene of the motion picture production and soon glistening rifle barrels shown in the sunlight. They were pointed at the picture actors. Serious trouble was averted by a hasty explanation by the manager of the company.

NO FROST APPEARED HERE

Cold Enough Last night, But the Sky was Clouded

Although frost was predicted for last night, it did put in its appearance in Rush county, according to all reports. The temperature was low enough, but a clouded sky prevented what the weather man said would be inevitable. The lowest temperature recorded here this morning was 45 degrees above zero. The mercury rose only five degrees up to noon. Unsettled weather, with showers, is predicted for tomorrow. The weather was not extreme enough to injure fruit or garden truck, it is thought.

“SAINT LOUIE” NOW

(By United Press.)

St. Louis, April 30.—It is done. The argument is settled. After today, forever and for aye, it shall be pronounced “Saint Louie”. So said the pageant masters and committee who intimated that they did not care a hang even if the word “saint” is given an English pronunciation, while the “Louie” follows in French. “Goodbye Saint. ‘Lewis’,” says the Mound City, “we cannot stand the final hiss.”

OVER HALF OF STOCK IS SOLD

Prospects Are That American Valve and Tank Company Will Locate its Factory Here.

ONE CONDITION TO BE FILLED
Local Man Will Probably Act as Manager in Case Stockholders Move Business Here.

A statement from the Chamber of Commerce concerning the sale of stock in the American Valve and Tank company, which was issued today, is as follows:

“The sale of the stock of the American Valve and Tank Co., which is trying to sell $15,000 worth of stock here so as to locate its factory in Rushville, is going ahead steadily. The Chamber of Commerce approved of the effort to sell the stock to Rush county men, and a committee was appointed to accompany Mr. Wedding, who is selling the stock, and assist him in meeting people and explain that the factory is already in existence and operating, has a first class and practical product to market, and that it would be a worthy enterprise to locate here.

“Although the Chamber of Commerce, of course, could not guarantee that the stock would pay big dividends, yet the fact that the business men connected with the Chamber approved of its being brought here, and that some members have purchased stock, some of them having previously been stockholders and sure of its merits, will be of some influence in persuading men to invest. The last report was that over half of the required amount had been sold.

“The stock is sold under the condition that the factory will be located here. As a majority of the stock sold while the factory was already operating is in the hands of Rush county citizens or former residents it seems probable that the amount will be raised. The majority of stock will be in the hands of local men, and the factory can be moved here at any time they see fit.

“The factory is not a large one, but the eight to fifteen men it employs are men of trades, and not a doubtful class of citizens, being mostly machinists. The article manufactured by this company, a flushing value for closets, is already in operation in several buildings in Rushville and has proved to be the best that can be obtained, requiring less attention than the common kinds. Several plumbers here recommend them highly.

The factory needs the added capital only for the purchase of raw materials and to market the product, which has sold only on its merits. A local man will probably act as manager of the concern.”

FIVE BODIES RECOVERED

Rescuers Penetrate to Bottom Mine No. 5 at Eccles Today.

(By United Press.)

Eccles, W. Va., April 30.—Rescuers penetrated to the bottom of mine No. 5 of the New River Collieries today and found five bodies. The victims were piled in a heap dead from suffocation. Wading in water knee deep the rescuers then sought to find others of the 172 victims of Tuesday's explosion. They carried canary birds in cages as gas barometers.

PROSPECT BRIGHT FOR THIS SEASON

Rosy View is Taken at Annual Meeting of Rushville Gun and Country Club Held Last Night.

NEW OFFICERS ARE ELECTED
Necessary Repairs Will be Made at Once so Use of Grounds Can be Had Early in Season.

At the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Rushville Gun and Country club held last night in the directors room of the Rushville National bank new officers were elected and rosy prospects for the ensuing year were pictured.

Interest in the club lagged last summer, largely due to the fact that the principal street leading to the grounds was under the process of being paved and was torn up several months. With a brick street leading to the very entrance of the club grounds this year it is felt that the enthusiastic members who attended the meeting last night that the club will hold the attraction for the large number of people that it has in summers gone by.

The club hopes to have repairs made on the driveway into the club grounds so that automobiles can enter without any difficulty. Other things are contemplated by the board of directors which will hold a meeting on the grounds in a few days and ascertain just what is needed.

The initial expense in fixing up the grounds and equipment will not be near as great this spring as last, because the club and locker house were under water during the flood of March, 1913 and made necessary a lot of repair. Members of the board present last night said that very little would be needed with the exception of replacing some window lights in the club house, placing new screens in the club house and preparing the tennis courts for play.

Even with all of the expense last years the treasurer's report showed $12.43 on the right side of the ledger. The belief was expressed last night, that if as many members qualified by paying their annual dues of two dollars this year as last year, it would be possible to have a caretaker at the grounds this season.

A strict account of members who pay their dues will be kept this year and their names posted in the club house. The rule that only members who pay dues shall be allowed the privilege of the club house and grounds was violated frequently last year, but it will be enforced without favor this year.

It was suggested that the Gun and Country club be placed before the Chamber of Commerce with a request that the sanction of the Chamber be placed on it and boost it.

Wilbur Stiers, Dr. P. H. Chadwick, Dr. F. M. Sparks, R. C. Hargrove, Walter Smith, Dr. Carl F. Behr and John P. Frazee were elected directors. All of the board, with the exception of Mr. Frazee, served last year. Mr. Frazee was elected to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Will C. McColgin.

Dr. P. H. Chadwick was re-elected president, Dr. F. M. Sparks, vice-president, Wilbur Stiers treasurer and R. E. Harrold was elected secretary. W. C. McColgin was secretary last year.

IS NO TRUTH IN REPORT

U. S. Pacific Fleet Did Not Bombard Manzanillo, Howard Wires.

(By United Press.)

Washington, April 30.—Admiral Howard today sent the following message to the state department, responding to a request from Secretary Daniels as to the accuracy of reports that marines had been landed at Manzanillo and the town bombarded:

“Unfounded. There was an incendiary fire at Manzanillo, but we were not even there.”

MEDIATION DETAILS MAY CHANGE ASPECT

Mexico's Agreement to Request of A. B. C. Diplomats is Not Made Without Reservation.

PRINCIPLE ONLY ACCEPTED

(BY WILLIAM G. SHEPHERD.)

(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

Vera Cruz, April 30.—Mexico's agreement to mediate is not without reservation. Dictator Huerta has not made up his mind as to how far he is willing to go towards bringing about peace and the matter of resigning apparently has not been considered by him.

The situation in the Mexican Capital was clearly indicated in a message I received from the Mexican foreign minister today. It stated:

“Up to now mediation is acceptable to Mexico in principle only. As soon as the details of mediation to which Mexico is willing to agree to are decided upon, I will be in a better position to make a statement. I hope mediation will bring about a solution acceptable to the dignity of both governments.”

REBEL CAMPAIGN NOT TO BE HALTED

Constitutionalists Will Not Consider Armistice Between Themselves General Huerta.

NO CHANCE TO STOP WARFARE

(By United Press.)

El Paso, Tex., April 30.—General Villa's campaign to sweep General Huerta's force from northern Mexico will not be halted pending mediation proceedings. Carranza will not consider a proposal for an armistice between his troops and those of General Huerta.

This statement was made to the United Press today by a high authority at Constitutionalists headquarters. It was made in answer to a query regarding Washington dispatches indicating an effort would be made to halt the warfare in northern Mexico.

“Villa will begin his campaign against Saltillo immediately,” said the informant. “It would be the height of folly for him to permit the Federal forces in northern Mexico numbering 15,000 to concentrate at Saltillo during an armistice.”

TROOPS BRING A PEACE MESSAGE

Following Conference With Strike Leaders Halbrook Announces Possible Ending of Hostilities.

CAVALRY IS AT WALSBERG

Fifteen Lives Are Sacrificed in Last Supreme Effort to Gain Control Before Soldiers Arrived.

(By United Press.)

Trinidad, Colo., April 30.—A message of peace was brought to the battle torn coal strike district of Colorado by Uncle Sam's men of war.

Following his arrival at the head of the second squadron of the Fifth U. S. Cavalry Major Halbrook held a long conference with strike leaders and then made the following statement:

“Local leaders of the strikers have just conferred with me regarding existing conditions. It is believed that as a result of this conference relations have been established and that acts of violence will at once cease. The representatives of the strikers expressed themselves as willing to give all assistance in their power to bring about a normal condition of affairs.

He announced he would immediately send one cavalry troop of 65 men to Walsenburg to take charge of the situation there where fighting between strikers, mine guards and militia continued for 56 hours up to last night with much bloodshed.

The quick action of the federal forces has raised great hope here that the civil war would soon cease.

Fifteen persons were killed during fights between mine guards, strikers and the state militia yesterday. Federal troops took charge of the situation today. This fact apparently inspired both sides to renewed vigor in an attempt to be in supreme command when the soldiers entered the field.

The two great battles Wednesday were at Forbes, 14 miles north of Trinidad, and at Walsenburg, where fighting had been in progress for 48 hours at dawn.

At Forbes 10 men were killed. The bodies have been recovered.

At Walsenburg three bodies, including a Red Cross physician, have been recovered and two more are

CELERY SHOWS IMPROVEMENT

Recent Shipments Show Comparative Freedom Copper, Which is a Harmful Element.

WARNING HAS BEEN ISSUED

Presence of Copper is Due to Faulty Spraying Apparatus—Consumer Must Help Also.

(Special to the Daily Republican)

Washington, April 30.—The table celery which has been coming into the market recently shows a distinct improvement over last year's in its comparative freedom from copper, according to reports received by the U. S. Department of Agriculture. Copper on celery is found in the form of dried Bordeaux mixture (lime and copper sulphate) which is used extensively to prevent the destruction of the crop by blight. The use of salts of copper in food products has been pronounced by the Referee Board injurious to the health, but on the other hand, it has been found practically impossible to bring celery to market in good condition unless the plants have been sprayed at certain periods of growth with Bordeaux mixture.

To meet this difficulty the Department of Agriculture issued a warning to growers last year, prescribing the method of spraying and urging housewives to be particularly careful in washing all celery before using it. The effect of this warning is now becoming apparent for the celery is reaching the market in better condition than in the past.

In investigating the question the Department discovered that the presence of copper was due to faulty spraying apparatus, usually the employment of knapsack sprayers instead of power outfits. These do not operate at a sufficiently high pressure to make a fine spray or mist. As a result the Bordeaux mixture is applied in a number of fine streams and these, instead of merely settling on the leaves, as a mist would do, run down between the stalks. Thus the mixture accumulates at the base of the plant and is not washed out by the rain. This sometimes gives a blue-green appearance to the celery, which many people imagine to be due to Paris green; as a matter of fact the green tint is that of a copper stained lime.

When spraying is done properly an efficient apparatus is used, working under high pressure—a hundred pounds or more. Spraying is stopped when the leaves are covered with fine drops and before these begin to run down the stalks and accumulate at the base of the plant. The leaves, it is pointed out, should not be eaten under any circumstances.

However careful the grower may be in his spraying, the consumer must also do his part. The bunches of celery should be broken open and the stalks washed and scrubbed thoroughly before they are eaten. This, chemical analysis shows, will remove nearly all of the copper found in dried Bordeaux mixture from the stalks and eliminate the danger of any bad effects to the consumer.

Are you going? Sure, I am going to see the "Captain of Plymouth" Friday night.

"The First Endorsement" is the title of the first picture at the Prin- cess tonight. Dorothy Kelly and James Morrison are featured. The second is a comedy-drama "One-to-Three." Ruth Stonehouse is featur- ed. The last is an Edison comedy "Courting Betty's Beau."

Tonight the Portola will show the Kalem feature drama, "Chasing the Smugglers," in which Carlyle Black- well has the leading role. The Por- tola advertises that Mary Pickford is to appear in a picture here soon. Miss Mary Charleston and Maurice Costello will play the stellar parts in "Iron and Steel," a Vitagraph two- reel picture which will be shown Sat- urday night.

The Gem will show the usual three pictures tonight. The first is a Rex drama entitled "Woman's Burden." Lois Weber and Rupert Julian are featured and it is said to be a dramatic picture. The second is a Nes- tor comedy "Scoopd By Hencop." Ramona Langely and Eddie Lyons are shown in this one. The last is an Imp comedy "Her Lover's Voice." Tomorrow night a two reel Imp fea- ture "The Touch of a Child" will be shown. King Baggott is featured.

John F. Stowe's Uncle Tom's Cabin will exhibit here Thursday, May 7, under canvass. Stowe has offered the play to the public for thirty years and has been recog- nized as the one manager who pro- duced the time-honored drama in its entirety. Stowe uses spectacular scenic effects and mechanical devices. This is said to be the most perfect production of Harriet Beecher Stowe's famous story.

Everything is in readiness for the play to be given tomorrow night in the Coliseum by the Senior class of the high school. "The Captain of Ply- mouth" is full of catchy music, and the speaking parts are clever. Each act ends with an ensemble of forty, which affords a comic opera climax. The play opens a short time after the landing of the Pilgrims, and the love affair of John Alden and Pricilla, with Capt. Miles Standish as Alden's rival is introduced. The costumes and scenery are of the Puritan type but the speeches are up-to- date in every respect. Miles and Erasmus are bound to a tree by a tribe of Indians, and when an Indi- an squaw, Katonka by name, gets Miles' permission to marry her, if he and Erasmus are united from the tree. Capt. Standish readily promises but later regrets his act, as the Elder Brewster commands him to marry the Indian. The ending of the play is exciting, and comical. Much fun is produced throughout the play by Erasmus and the soldiers. The play is in three acts and holds an audi- ence from start to finish. The cur- tain will go up at eight o'clock.

An Annual Cleaning

The time is here for us to sharpen up our lawnmowers, get out the good hoe and rake and go to it. Next week is clean-up week and it behooves the best of us and the worst of us to make this the real spotless town. Even the children can help separate the alleys and back yards from the winter's accumulation of filth and rubbish.

Clean-up week means that Rushville will be a healthier city. The health board has already made it plain that it will make an inspection of the city and see that the city health ordinances are enforced. No one appreciates the value of clean-up week more than the health board, because filth is the breeding places of flies and other germ carriers, as well as germs themselves.

Unkempt alleys and littered back yards mean filth. Uncovered garbage cans mean filth in the superlative degree. Filth means flies and then more flies. An the beastly flies carry tuberculosis, typhoid and other dreaded germ diseases which bring certain suffering, heavy expense and sometimes death. They can all be avoided if the proper care and precaution is taken.

Rushville will emerge from clean-up week a healthier, cleaner, better city. The fine influences of a healthful and attractive environment are immeasurable yet that is what we are to have with only a little exertion on the part of everyone. It is worth much more to live in a clean, healthy city. The enjoyment is in a greater degree.

The city has lent its good offices to make the clean-up week a success.

City wagons will pass up and down the alleys and gather up the accumulations of the winter. Of course, the city does not offer to haul away any tree limbs and other large articles, but the city will undoubtedly do its share.

The Chamber of Commerce, which is a representative body of men, has sanctioned the clean-up movement and has placed its stamp of approval on the project. Every individual member of the Chamber of Commerce may show his sincerity by lending a hand.

Lastly, but not least by any means clean-up week is invaluable because it makes for a more united city and establishes a common bond between the citizens. There is a spirit of co-operation about the whole movement that is worth all the effort which may be expended. People who participate in the city-wide plan realize that their interests are identical to those of every other resident of Rushville and what benefits one benefits all.

YEARLY BANQUET IS HAPPY AFFAIR

Guests and Not Members Respond to Toasts at Meeting of Milroy High School Alumni Association

HELD AT MILROY LAST NIGHT

A. L. Gary Comments on Remarkable Advancement of Anderson Township Town—Letters Read

The sixth annual banquet of the Milroy High School Alumni association was held in the auditorium of the school building last night. A complete program was given after which the alumni members and guests marched to the banquet hall where feasting intermingled with a talk fest. Over a hundred members and guests attended, and it was considered one of the best banquets ever given by the association.

The Erdman orchestra of Greensburg furnished the music for the occasion and aided materially in keeping the banquet at its high pitch of merriment.

An address was given by A. L. Gary an attorney of this city, who showed that the people of Milroy and Anderson township were advanced in civic affairs, as was indicated by the cement sidewalks, electric lights, fire department, magnificent church edifices and a fine new school building. Mr. Gary showed that the people of Milroy had all the benefits that any incorporated towns of much larger population had. Mr. Gary accounted for this by the fact that the people in Milroy labored with one view in purpose and any internal dissension in their midst was adjusted among themselves and always to their mutual advantage.

The alumni association at this banquet tried an innovation. The speakers on the program were not members of the association, but were invited guests.

Miss Marie Harrison, daughter of I. O. Harrison, former county superintendent of schools followed Mr. Gary with a reading, which was well rendered and given in a manner that showed that she is an elocutionist of no small ability.

The Rev. C. S. Black, pastor of the Milroy Methodist church, gave a pleasing talk in which he deplored the fact that so many young people provided with many advantages for their moral and mental uplift, should be content to fritter away their time and not take advantage of the opportunities. The Rev. Mr. Black was well received. He portrayed the typical dude and showed the folly of their fancies in regard to dress and personal appearance.

J. L. Parsons served in the capacity of toastmaster and read letters of regrets from members residing at a distance. One from J. L. Shauck, a teacher in Milroy and Rush county for many years, indicated his old time humor and bits of wisdom for boys and girls as only he could give. He was cheered to the echo and the association still remembers there was never a teacher quite like "John Lemuel."

Toasts were responded to by a number of the alumni, including A. E. Taylor present clerk of the circuit court.

Auld Lang Sang was sung by the alumni, after which the benediction was pronounced by the Rev. Paul Stewart. A number of the alumni residing in Rushville attended.

T. E. Trackwell of Marion Brings Suit Against Mrs. A. B. Irvin, Her Son and Bookkeeper.

RELATES TO GOLD FISH PONDS

Mrs. Maggie M. Irvin, wife of A. B. Irvin, of this city, her son Chester Heck and Susie Brown were made defendants in the Shelby circuit court yesterday in a suit filed by Thomas E. Trackwell, of Marion, Ind., administrator of the estate of Mrs. Samantha J. Shoup, deceased. The complaint is for the conversion of trust funds and $16,000 is demanded.

The complaint asserts that Mrs. Shoup turned the management of her property over to the defendants during the last few years of her life and it is alleged that the defendants converted $15,937.83 of her money for their own use. The complaint states that it is impossible to tell the amount each individual is accountable for. Prior to the death of Mr. Shoup, he had been in the gold fish business with Charles Heck, Mrs. Irvin's first husband. After the death of the men the business was conducted by Mrs. Irvin, her son, Chester Heck and Susie Brown, who was the bookkeeper. Will M. BASE BALL . . . GENERAL NEWS

LEADERS START WITH A WOBBLE

General Dope Did Not Hit on Early Games in National and American Leagues

CHANCE'S TEAM IS SURPRISE

Rejuvenated Yankees Ripped Hide off Athletics Twice and Look Good for First Division

BY HAL SHERIDAN
(Written for United Press.)

New York, April 30.—As no doubt old man Socrates remarked as he gently eased himself off from all turmoil and strife, how different are the days of April and October. After the stuttering start due to interruptions by rain May will see a beginning of the jockeying at the turn and a better opportunity will be afforded toward getting some sort of a line as to who's who in this mad scramble for the American and National League pennants.

The erstwhile leaders started with a wobble. The general dope didn't any more hit on the early games than the majority of the guesses as to what the Giant pitchers would do to the Athletics last October. How different are the days of April and October.

ferent are the days of April and October.

The real surprise in the American League has been dished up by Frank Chance. His New York Yankees are a revelation as compared with the team which struggled along last year and went from April until June without winning a game on their home grounds. Not that Chance may be a pennant contender, for again the difference between April and October looms up, but the spirit and general work of the present Yanks makes former teams hiding behind the name look like a collection from the morgue.

Opening the season the rejuvenated Yanks ripped the hide off the Athletics twice in succession. Connie Mack's clan, it is true, was not near up to form, but Chance's men tore into them just as though they had finished copping a pennant and were out to lick the world. There was no faltering, but a steady, boring attack and a stubbornness on defense that checked the Mackmen on the same field where they ran wild with the Giants—last October.

The Yanks are due to make trouble for more than one team in the League if they hold the gait they cut out for themselves at the start. In Maise at third and Peckinbaugh at short, the left side of the Yanks in field compares favorably with the best.

Williams, at first, sat in on the old assignment of Hal Chase as though it was the only thing he had been waiting to do on this sphere and intended to make a good job of it. Chance's outfield has been completely worked over and the P. L. appears to have re-gearred his pitchers. If they continue without busting a main spring or jarring loose some bolts the Yanks may give a few uneasy hours to aspiring pennant chasers as the season wears them along and knock loudly at the first division. Where they will really finish, however, may be better told in these dispatches along during the season of that proverbial "bright blue water"; for as has been remarked before how different are the days—

At the start, at least, the Phillies in the National League showed more strength than was expected in view of the rough way in which the Feds treated Charlie Dootin in grabbing men. The Giants started slow and the Phillies walloped them twice. Then even Mathewson got his when he stacked up against Brooklyn. The Boston Braves, expected to be one of the most improved teams in the parent organization, also faltered with the springing of the barrier.

With but few exceptions pitching arms seemed to be in better shape than batting eyes. The swatting lamps were sadly in need of trimming, but as the sun rays begin to warm up so are the sluggers steaming along toward their jobs of piling up hits.

Walter Johnson is one exception so far as pitchers are concerned. The Kansas cyclone appears to be starting out on his greatest year in baseball. In his first two games Johnson allowed just one run. He shut up on the Boston Braves with 3 hits. The Yanks slipped over one run on him, but collected only four safe drives. Johnson met them, too, when they were flushed with confidence after having laced the daylight out of the Athletics. Walter simply stood up and shot over his benders as though no one was at the plate, and saved for those occasion when a Yank took a stab and met one head on, there might as well not have been.

Francis Ouimet, American open golf champion, struck a mental hazard in England and sat down to think his way over it before mixing in too many matches. Ouimet said he did not feel that he was primed for real play. He therefore engaged in some mental calisthenics.

Possibly that was the trouble with the Giants and Athletics at the start. Frank Baker's first effort on the Polo Grounds since he laced the Giant pitchers in October was a weak roller to short. He was an easy out. Time should have been taken out for Baker to contemplate the spot in which he placed his home run smash off Marquard. It might have been an inspiration.

Has been Pitching for Norwood Team and Should be Winner Here—Great Game Expected

(By Doc Hiner.)

That Rushville is determined to win the game Sunday from the Cincinnati Superbas is evidenced by the fact that Manager Fisher has secured Eddie Sanford late of Kansas City Feds to pitch the game. Sanford lives in Grant, Ky., and it was left with John Spinney of Cincinnati to secure Sanford. Word late yesterday from Spinney was to the effect that Sanford would come here with the rest of the players Sunday morning.

Sanford has been pitching this year for the Norwood team and has two victories to his credit, having defeated the Shamrocks and Price Hill team. The management is determined to give the fans good ball and with a pitcher of Sanford's ability there should be little doubt as to the outcome Sunday.

An effort will be made to retain Sanford for the rest of the season but as he is likely to go to the league at any time, this may be hard to accomplish. The fans will also be given a chance to size up Patterson. Patterson notified Manager Fisher today that he was getting anxious to play here. He desires another week in which to get into condition. Patterson told Fisher that when he was ready to work he would be ready to win games and did not desire to fool the management into believing he could pitch when he could not.

Fisher liked the way Patterson talked. He will come Sunday and while he will not get into the game, the fans will have a chance of sizing him up. He will work out with the team but will not go in the box. Sanford is ready to go the whole route and should beat Davidson's Superbas.

The Superbas played two games here last season late and the fans know that they have a team. The team is practically the same as last year. Bob Geary will do the pitching for the Superbas and if he is right it will take a man like Sanford to turn the trick. The fans are assured a ball game this Sunday. Geary worked in both games the Superbas played here last year. The first one he lost by a one to nothing score and the other he won 7 to 2. He has everything on the ball and only recently returned from Georgia where he was signed with a team in a league.

The Superbas are coming here to win and Manager Fisher is determined that if Rushville is to have a team now is the time to start and will take no chances. If Sanford can be landed for the rest of the season and with Patterson in line also the team should not worry.

While a member of the Kansas City team Sanford won a majority of his games and could have gone back there this year. He also had an offer from Toledo but was given a double cross and decided to play semi-pro ball in Cincinnati.

LIGHT COLORS FAVORED FOR EARLY SUMMER

Although white will be quite as popular as ever this summer, there is also a demand for the soft shades of yellow, pink, blue and other light tones. The imported crepes which are being so widely used for summer frocks, show quaint figures and dainty colorings; silks also come in all the new shades and designs. For separate blouses the figured and plain colored crepes are used; collar and cuffs are usually of white batiste or organdy, and the buttons most popular are novelty porcelain and bone.

In No. 8254-8255 a figured crepe blouse is combined with a skirt of taffeta for afternoon wear. An unusual collar and a raglan shoulder are smart features of the blouse and the skirt displays a modish bit of drapery. It is a two-piece skirt with two wide plaits laid in the back to suggest a peg-top effect; the front drapery also carries out this idea.

Crêpe ranges in price from 45 cents a yard and up; taffetas may be purchased from $1.25 and up.

This blouse (8254) may be made in size 36 with 2 yards of 36-inch material; the skirt (8255) requires 2 1/2 yards of 36-inch material.

Cotton crepe in a delicate shade of yellow was used to develop the misses' dress shown in No. 7836. Bands of eyelet embroidery outline the edges of the surplice closing blouse and extend down the front to carry out the effect of a tunic. The skirt is a two-piece model tucked to appear like a tiered model.

For a girl of eighteen, 6 1/4 yards of 36-inch material are required.

WOMAN REFUSES OPERATION

Tells How She Was Saved by Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Logansport, Ind. — "My baby was over a year old and I bloated till I was a burden to myself.

I suffered from female trouble so I could not stand on my feet and I felt like millions of needles were pricking me all over. At last my doctor told me that all that would save me was an operation, but this I refused. I told my husband to get me a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I would try it before I would submit to any operation. He did so and I improved right along. I am now doing all my work and feeling fine.

"I hope other suffering women will try your Compound. I will recommend it to all I know." — Mrs. DANIEL D. B. DAVIS, 110 Franklin St., Logansport, Ind.

Since we guarantee that all testimonials which we publish are genuine, is it not fair to suppose that if Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has the virtue to help these women it will help any other woman who is suffering in a like manner?

If you are ill do not drag along until an operation is necessary, but at once take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

AN EFFECTIVE THISTLE DESIGN FOR A BETWEEN-MEALS MAT

Attractive between-meals-mats may be made of white, dark blue, green, brown, or natural colored linen and decorated with hand embroidery. This artistic design of thistles and leaves may be embroidered on a between-meals-mat in two or more shades of one color, or the natural colorings. The leaves and flowers may be developed in outline-stitch, and darning or Kensington stitch, and the scalloped edge should be heavily padded and covered with buttonhole-stitches the color of the linen.

Kensington-stitch consists of overlapping rows of long-and-short-stitch or back-stitch. Each row of stitches should lap deeply into the one preceding, and their direction should be the same as that of the veining of the petal or leaf, or radiating from the flower-center outward. The shading should be done with two strands of two shades. To work to the next, use one strand of the original shade and two of the lighter or darker. This design, omitting the scalloped edge may also be used as a stencil. Developed in this manner, the design is appropriate for use on a between-meals-mat, runner or an evening scarf of crêpe de chine or chiffon. Beads or tiny spangles may also be used in carrying out this pattern, which is 23 by 40 inches. Explicit directions for stenciling are given on the pattern envelope.

Guaranteed, hot-iron transfer pattern, No. 14169, will be supplied to readers for 15 cents.

FOREIGNERS NUMBER 3,000

Could Raise an "Army" in Mexico City in Few Hours in Case of Self Defense

THAT EXCLUDES SPANIARDS

Germans, Americans and Englishmen are all Armed and Ready for any Emergency in Capital

(By United Press.)

Mexico City, April 30.—"I'm the correspondent of the London Express," said a newly arrived young Englishman, entering the British club in Mexico City. "Just sign your name to this list," said the secretary "Drill day will be announced soon. Every Englishman who comes here joins the British colony volunteers we'll furnish you with a rifle when you go to drill."

Every Englishman in Mexico City is expected to join the volunteers. The rifles strangely enough, are furnished, in part by the Mexican government. There are about 700 Britishers in the capital, including perhaps 100 women and children.

The Germans in the capital number about 1,000, including 800 men, most of whom have served in the German army. Drills, with the German volunteers, are frequent and they have entered into the spirit of self-defense so heartily that they have even purchased horses for a volunteer cavalry.

Together with the British volunteers the Germans would make a fighting force in the foreign colony of 1,500 men. There are also, perhaps, 600 Frenchmen who are prepared to join the force of foreign self-defense, bring the number of "allies" up to 2,100.

There would be more than this number of men however, ready with rifles if it became necessary for foreigners in Mexico City to defend themselves against riots or mob violence. The strength of the American colony is kept secret and the fact that they are supplied with rifles is not bruited about, because of the anti-American feeling in the capital. In the American embassy, now, there are two machine guns and 250 rifles which are ready to be distributed among the Americans, if need arises. Four hundred American men it is estimated, would be added to the "allies" if the call to arms were sounded.

The census of 1910, taken in days of peace, shows that there were 12,227 Spaniards in Mexico City at that time and 24,212 Spaniards in all Mexico. It is probable that these figures are about the same today, for the Spaniards have not fled from the country as have members of other nationalities. They couldn't flee, very well. They own all the grocery stores not only in the capital but in Mexico itself. They control the liquor or pulque business, and the tobacco business. Much of the farming is done by them. About the only interests they have left untouched are mining, which is done by Americans, and dry goods, which is in the hands of the French.

It is probable because they are so prosperous and have seized so much of the country's business that Spaniards are so cordially hated by the Mexicans and invariably mistreated and robbed by Mexican revolutionists. If the Spaniards in Mexico City have organized a defense corps they are keeping the fact a secret, in order not to arouse Mexican ire. If it were known in the capital that the Spaniards were arming, it might be necessary for the government, in order to satisfy the populace, to take their arms away from them.

The 400 Japanese in the capital are fully prepared to defend themselves but the 1,500 peaceful Chinamen, who do the laundry work of the city—a business which the Mexicans do not begrudge them—will take what fate doles out to them, if conditions are disturbed.

It is a matter of fact that an army of about 3,000 foreigners could be organized in Mexico City on a few hours' notice. The volunteers would gather in the Colonia Roma District where nearly all of the foreign embassies are located.

This district was entered by the Mexican fighting men during the battle of Mexico City about a year ago and more than one embassy was struck by bullets; perhaps more than one foreign flag was pierced. But the chief object of the fighters was to reach the home of President Madero which was situated in the Colonia Roma District. After they had sized that and shelled it and burned it to the ground, there was no more trouble in that part of town.

It is not believed, in case the city was thrown into militant turmoil, that the "allies" would have to defend themselves for more than 20 hours.

The foreign battleships at Vera Cruz all lie near the terminal of the railroad that leads to Mexico City. Empty cars are kept there in readiness for the word that marines are needed in the Mexican capital and, if the railroad lines were not cut, some 8,000 French, German, English, Spanish and American marines might reach the city, within less than 24 hours, not to mention a large number of Japanese marines who would be rushed on a 36-hour trip from the Pacific coast.

CLEVELAND WILL TURN BACK CLOCKS

Amid Blasts of Factory Whistles Ohio City Will Change From Central to Eastern Time.

SOME CONFUSION EXPECTED

(By United Press.)

Cleveland, April 30.—Amid blasts of factory whistles and city-wide celebration Cleveland at midnight tonight will turn her watches and clocks forward one hour, signaling a change to Eastern time. A score of other cities in Northern Ohio also will make the change.

Instead of going to work at seven o'clock tomorrow morning thousands of workers will really answer factory whistles at 6 a. m. (central time) and will cease at 4 p. m. The primary purpose of the change, brought about by Cleveland city officials, is to give workmen an additional hour of daylight.

Some confusion is expected in the announcement of railroads that temporarily at least, schedules will continue to operate on central time. Thus a traveler may arise at seven prepare his toilet, eat breakfast and take seven o'clock train with plenty of time to spare. Others, unfamiliar with the changes may arrive an hour early at the station and be forced to wait. A few adjacent cities will not adopt the change with Cleveland. Railroad trains destined to these cities will in this case make the run in less than nothing—so to speak—from a standpoint of Eastern time prevailing in the city of departure.

Mayor Newton D. Baker issued a proclamation several days ago, calling on every citizen to observe the formal change by setting forward the hands of his watch and clock, or clocks, and take part, if possible in the general celebration.

Mrs. J. P. Cowan, age sixty-five years, sister-in-law of Mrs. Stella Cowan of North Jackson street, was painfully injured in Indianapolis yesterday afternoon. TO SING AT CONCERT OF THE ORCHESTRA

Carl Morris is Engaged as Soloist For Last Appearance of Indianapolis Musical Organization.

SENDS SCORE FOR HIS SONG

In addition to the announcements made recently in the Republican concerning Carl Morris, New York baritone and former Rush county man, it has just been announced in Indianapolis that Mr. Morris will be the soloist for the next concert of the Indianapolis orchestra, which will be given Sunday afternoon, May 10, at the Murt theater, in Indianapolis. It will be recalled that Mr. Morris was recently honored by being selected to sing at the Maine fall festival out of a class of over twenty contestants, and that he plans to study in France and Italy this summer.

Mr. Morris was coming to Indiana to sing at Peru and while in this state will sing with the Indianapolis orchestra in place of the Muskverein, the latter having been announced to appear in place of a soloist. He has sent the orchestra score for his song, which will be the "Eri Tu" from "The Masked Ball" (Verdi.) His many friends will be glad that he could be engaged for the orchestra concert.

If Sufficient Effort is Made 1915 Session of Sixth District Bankers Will be in Rushville.

IS AT SHELBYVILLE MAY 14

The bankers of the Sixth district will meet in Shelbyville May 14 and it is likely that all the banks in this city will be represented as the meeting next year will be held in this city if sufficient effort is made to bring it here. The bankers of Shelbyville have arranged a program and expect to entertain 150 visiting bankers. The district includes fifteen counties in southeastern Indiana and most of the banks are members of the association. Dr. S. P. McCrea, president of the Farmers National bank, of Shelbyville is district chairman, and Walter Hungerford, cashier of the bank at St. Paul, is secretary of the association.

The business session will start at 10:30 o'clock in the Alhambra theatre and will be followed by a banquet at the Elks hall. The program also includes an auto trip over Shelbyville.

ALL WANT THEIR RELICS PRESERVED

Would Rather Lose an Arm, Writes One Man Who Sent Exhibit For The G. A. R. Encampment.

WILL BE GUARDED CLOSELY

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Ind., April 30.—"I would sooner lose a leg or an arm than lose the relic which has been in the family for more than a century." This is the phrase taken from the letter today of one of the prospective exhibitors at the showing of Indiana war relics and armament during the G. A. R. encampment May 6, 7, 8. It is a sample of the kind of inquiries that keep coming to Dr. W. W. Peet, Newton Claypool building. Dr. Peet has charge of the correspondence with owners of war relics wanted for the exhibit.

Every possible means of insuring the safety of the relics left in their charge is being taken by H. D. Tutwiler, chairman of the committee on entertainment, and the members of the committee. Major D. I. McCormick, of the Indiana Battle Flag Commission, is to be placed directly in charge of the exhibit and the guards. Besides a number of men to be stationed both inside and outside the exhibit hall in the Denison Hotel, there will be two city policemen, and some hotel help in charge.

The exhibit will be guarded day and night, and the reason is that the committee found the holders of these relics placed a value upon them not measured by dollars and cents, and yet the relics to relic hunters have a real dollars and cents value. The exhibit is to be free.

FIVE NEW STAMP ISSUES TO BE MADE

Intended Particularly For Use of Parcels, But Will be Valid on all Classes of Mail.

DESCRIPTION OF STAMPS

The postoffice department soon will issue five new denominations of ordinary postage stamps, intended particularly for use on parcels but which are valid for postage on all classes of mail matter. The new stamps are of the same size and shape as the other ordinary stamps of the 1911 series and the denominations are seven-cent (black), nine-cent (pink), twelve-cent (maroon), twenty cent (light blue) and thirty-cent (vermillion).

The seven-cent bears the head of Washington in profile, from Houdon's bust looking to the left. The border design is the same as the first six denominations of the current series. The other new stamps bear the head of Franklin in profile, from Houdon's bust, looking to the left. The denominations have the same border design as the current eight-cent to one-dollar stamps.

Postmasters have received instructions from the department to see that senders of parcels presented for insurance or for collection on delivery are requested to state the nature of the contents, and that the indorsement "Fragile," "Perishable" and "Eggs" are made on such parcels, as required by the new regulations, before dispatch.

ROBERTS ON STAND IN OWN DEFENSE

Mayor of Terre Haute Today Follows "Battle Ax" Savage as Witness in Election Fraud Case.

HE DENIES ABOUT EVERYTHING

(By United Press.)

Terre Haute, Ind., April 30.—Mayor Donn Roberts on trial for election frauds took the stand in his own behalf today. He denied that he had paid Andy Berkley $50 over a saloon bar for padding the registration books in Taylorsville. He was not permitted to answer questions concerning a break in the political party between his faction and that of John Lamb.

Frank "Battle Ax" Savage, murderer, appeared for the defense in the Mayor Roberts election fraud trial today. He refuted the statement of Harry Kiger's mother that he had killed Kiger at the bidding of Roberts because Kiger was about to sell information of frauds to a local newspaper. He said he killed Kiger after a quarrel over a watch. Forest Lanham said today he had been paid in the Fairbanks brewery for services rendered in hauling floaters to the polls in a dry election.

VINCENT ASTOR MARRIES

Miss Helen Dinsmore Huntington Today Becomes His Wife.

(By United Press.)

Staatsburg, N.Y., Apr. 30.—Vincent Astor, head of "The House of Astor," and the richest bachelor in America, today was married to Miss Helen Dinsmore Huntington, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert P. Huntington. The ceremony, performed at the magnificent home of the bride's parents by the Rev. C. H. Duncan, of St. Margaret's Episcopal church, was unique in the annals of New York society. By mutual agreement of the bride and bridegroom and their respective families it was, perhaps, the simplest wedding ultra New York society has ever known. It was at first planned to have the ceremony performed at St. Margaret's church, but the bridegroom's recent illness caused the change. The ceremony was completed at 12:45.
